Acworth resident sentenced to 50 years for violent crimes
State vs. David Andre Wohlgemuth

February 6, 2020 – District Attorney Shannon Wallace announces that David Andre Wohlgemuth, 23, pled guilty to multiple charges, including aggravated assault, aggravated assault on a law enforcement officer, aggravated battery, armed robbery, burglary in the first degree, home invasion, possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony, possession of a firearm by a first offender probationer, and theft by receiving stolen property.

The charges relate to three separate felony cases. On November 3, 2017, Wohlgemuth burglarized an Acworth home, stealing jewelry and money from the residence. Four days later, he broke into a Ball Ground home and shot a woman in the head and face. Then, on February 21, 2018, while incarcerated, Wohlgemuth committed aggravated assault on a Cherokee Sheriff's Office deputy at the Cherokee County Adult Detention Center.

"David Wohlgemuth has exhibited neither respect for the law, nor human decency," said Deputy Chief Assistant District Attorney Jennifer Gower Side, who prosecuted the case on behalf of the State. "He committed multiple violent crimes and left one of his victims with chronic injuries that likely caused her pain and suffering for the rest of her life."

During a hearing on January 22, Judge Jennifer Davis sentenced the defendant to 50 years, with the first 40 years to be served in confinement. Upon release, Wohlgemuth will serve the remainder of his sentence on probation with special conditions to include receiving a mental health evaluation and treatment, as well as no contact with any victims or incident locations.

"This defendant was wreaking havoc on our community with increasingly violent crimes," said District Attorney Shannon Wallace. "We are thankful for the great investigative work from the Cherokee Sheriff's Office, which led to his arrest and ultimate sentence. Our community is safer with this defendant behind bars."

The Office of the District Attorney for the Blue Ridge Judicial Circuit is committed to seeking justice, acting with integrity, and collaborating with partner agencies in the criminal justice system in order to protect the citizens of Cherokee County and the State of Georgia.
