

Submitting Your Disability Claim

Personalized support—
every step of the way!

Cherokee County Board of Commissioners

How to file a disability claim

Disability coverage is a valuable benefit because it helps protect your income when you are unable to work due to an illness, injury, or pregnancy. Prudential is pleased to provide you with disability coverage and wants to make your claim for benefits as easy as possible.

Just follow these steps

If you are out of work for more than three days, or have an upcoming planned disability absence such as childbirth or surgery:

1. Notify your supervisor and Human Resources.

2. Call Prudential at 800-842-1718, anytime.

You can speak to a trained disability specialist or follow the prompts to record your disability information.

OR

Log in to www.prudential.com/mybenefits

Click on “Claims and Absence” and then “File a Claim / Report an Absence.” There, you can input your information and download any forms you may need.

3. Ask your doctor’s office to make a copy of the attached Authorization Card.

This will allow your doctor’s office to release information Prudential needs to process your claim for disability benefits.

Have this information ready

To help us process your claim for benefits promptly, you’ll be asked to provide this information:

- Company Name: Cherokee County Board of Commissioners
- Company Control Number: 53123
- Employee ID or Social Security number
- Address and telephone number
- Date of birth
- Job title
- Doctor’s name, phone number, and fax
- Your last day worked and your first day out due to this condition
- If the absence is work-related
- The date you expect to return to work

What you can expect

To process your claim for disability, Prudential needs statements from you, your doctor, and your employer. When you speak with a Prudential specialist, they will obtain your information. Prudential will get your doctor’s and employer’s information for you.

A decision will be made after we review this information. If you have Short Term Disability (STD) and Long Term Disability (LTD) coverage with Prudential, you do not have to submit a LTD claim.

When should I contact Prudential again?

Notify us by phone or online if:

- You have updated information
- You are unable to return to work when planned
- You have returned to work or are returning
- You want to report your delivery date
- You need forms

Find out about your claim

To get claim status or payment information about your claim for disability benefits, call 800-842-1718 or log in to www.prudential.com/mybenefits

Authorization for Release of Information to The Prudential Insurance Company of America

This Authorization is not intended for use with FMLA leave or similar absences.

This Authorization is intended to comply with the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

I authorize any health plan, physician, health care professional, hospital, clinic, laboratory, pharmacy, medical facility, or other health care provider that has provided treatment, payment, or services to me or on my behalf (“my providers”) to disclose my entire medical record and any other health information concerning me to The Prudential Insurance Company of America (Prudential) and its agents, employees, and representatives. This includes information on the diagnosis or treatment of Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) infection and sexually transmitted diseases. This also includes information on the diagnosis and treatment of mental illness and the use of alcohol, drugs, and tobacco, but excludes psychotherapy notes.

By my signature below, I acknowledge that any agreements I have made to restrict my protected health information do not apply to this authorization and I instruct my providers to release and disclose my entire medical record without restriction.

This information is to be disclosed under this authorization so that Prudential may: 1) administer claims and determine or fulfill responsibility for coverage and provision of benefits; 2) obtain reinsurance; 3) administer coverage; and 4) conduct other legally permissible activities that relate to any coverage I have or have applied for with Prudential.

This authorization shall remain in force for 24 months following the date of my signature below, while the coverage is in force, except to the extent that state law imposes a shorter duration. A copy of this authorization is as valid as the original. I understand that I have the right to revoke this authorization in writing, at any time, by sending a written request for revocation to Prudential at: P.O. Box 13480, Philadelphia, PA 19176. I understand that a revocation is not effective to the extent that any of my providers have relied on this authorization to the extent that Prudential has a legal right to contest a claim under an insurance policy or to contest the policy itself. I understand that any information that is disclosed pursuant to this authorization may be redisclosed and not covered by federal rules governing privacy and confidentiality of health information.

I understand that if I refuse to sign this authorization to release the entire medical record, Prudential may not be able to process my claim for benefits and may not be able to make any benefit payments. I understand that I have the right to receive a copy of this authorization.

The statements made by me on this claim are true and complete.
